This matter came before the Court on the defendant, Kashaun Lockett's Motion to Continue Trial [233]. While the Court has previously ordered that no further continuances will be granted absent extraordinary circumstances, defendant's counsel states that the parties have entered into a mutually acceptable plea agreement. Co-defendant, Gary Lockett does not object to a continuance. Under these circumstances, good cause exists for the requested continuance. Accordingly,

IT IS ORDERED that the Motion to Continue Trial) [233] is granted, as follows:

1. The jury trial, for both defendants, now set for October 2, 2023, is continued to December 4, 2023.
2. In accordance with 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A), the court finds that the ends of justice will be served by granting this continuance and outweigh the interests of the public and the defendants in a speedy trial. Any additional time arising as a result of the granting of this motion, that is, the time between today's date and December 4, 2023, shall be deemed excludable time in any computation of time under the requirement of the Speedy Trial Act. Failure to grant a continuance would unreasonably deny the defendant continuity of counsel, or would deny counsel the reasonable time necessary for effective preparation, taking into account the exercise of due diligence. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(6), (7)(A) & (B)(iv).
3. No further continuances will be granted absent extraordinary circumstances.

DATED: September 22, 2023.

BY THE COURT:

s/ Michael D. Nelson
United States Magistrate Judge
